GLOBAL RANKING

Network of the Best Global Accounting Firms 2020 and 2022

HLB recently won the Network of the Year 2022 award at the International Accounting Bulletin Annual Awards. This award acknowledges organisations that are recognised as a reputable brand that consistently delivers high quality professional services. Network of the Year is awarded to a multi-firm organisation that has demonstrated profitable growth strategies during the past 12 months and have excelled in key strategic and operational areas. HLB stood out due to its substantial growth over 2021 and its innovative offerings to clients worldwide.

This is the second time in three years that the network won this prestigious award. HLB also won 'the Network of Year' at the 2020 Digital Accountancy Awards. The Digital Accountancy Awards is the industry's premiere awards programme, recognising both rising stars and established leaders among the institutions who make up the global accountancy profession. To be considered for this award, nominees had to demonstrate the execution of profitable growth strategies, be recognised by the industry as a reputable brand and have excelled in a number of key strategic and operational areas.

HLB IN THE UNITED STATES

An important player and consistent leader in the global marketplace – as well as the largest importer and second largest exporter – the U.S. economy is renowned for its resilience, flexibility and innovation. Its receptiveness to change and willingness to embrace new ideas creates myriad opportunities for foreign investors. Additionally, its English-speaking business environment and entrepreneurial, risk-taking culture make it an attractive option for businesses looking to grow through cross-border expansion.

Just as businesses in the U.S. are thriving, so are HLB member firms due to our strong roots in U.S. business community. Our professionals are skilled, progressive and local, offering well-established and customized advisory and consulting services to wide range of clients looking to do business in the U.S.

HLB IN GREATER CHINA

China is one of the biggest players on the world stage as the world's largest exporter, second largest importer, largest recipient of foreign direct investment (FDI) and second largest investor in other countries. Businesses from all over the world are looking for opportunities to open locations, invest and expand in China now more than ever. Entering the Chinese market, however, can be tricky and complex. It is important for business leaders to understand its culture and customs to properly navigate the Chinese marketplace or to conduct business locally with Chinese partners.

As one of the first international accounting networks to enter Greater China, we know how to help businesses overcome these challenges, make important connections and succeed in their expansion efforts.
